A broad look at the questions, answers and ideas follows.

Vision: Where do you want to see Bronte in 2020?

The groups came up with many different answers. The consensus was a clean, safe, attractive, prosperous growing "small town" of friendly families with good water, housing, and jobs.

What is Unique about Bronte?

Again, the groups mentioned several of Bronte's features. These included:

* Bronte has more improvements (curbed, paved streets, etc.) than most small towns our size in Texas while maintaining its "small town atmosphere".

* Bronte is excellently situated on a major US highway and a state highway between two larger cities and still relative close to several of Texas' major metro areas.

* Bronte has Fort Chadbourne, a great, friendly school and a great spirit of volunteerism.

* Bronte is full of friendly people who work together.

Needs:

What is Bronte lacking?

The groups were quite vocal with what they believed Bronte needed. Generally, some wanted more local businesses and services. Almost everyone agreed that Bronte needs affordable residential housing, more water, commercial development, faster high speed internet, more young families, daycare and entertainment for kids. A large group also felt that the old, vacant buildings and houses needed to be demolished. While several groups also called for a walking trail around the park and golf course, a repaired and updated community center, zero tolerance from courts on drug violations, and an attractive downtown giving motorists a reason other than Stripes to stop.

A marketing program to promote Bronte was also discussed and a city planning committee has been proposed.

Representatives of the local Chamber, Volunteer Fire Department, EMS, Bronte Economic Development Council, city, county, school, Lions Club, and Sosis Club were among those attending.

Ideally, local business owners will benefit from this exchange of information and ideas, as they are heavily invested in the future of Bronte. The ladies of the Sosis Study Club provided a wide array of delicious morsels for the meeting.

The next meeting will be Monday, April 27, at 6 pm at the Williams Building in downtown Bronte.
