Casey

Dwala Carol Mason Casey went home on Saturday, March 31, 2012, surrounded by family and friends and the loving ladies at the Robert Lee Care Center.

Dwala was born on November 7, 1942, in Ionsville, Kentucky, to Wendell and Thelma Mason.

Dwala married her love, William (Bill) Wayne Casey on May 26, 1962, in San Angelo, Texas, at Johnson Street Church of Christ. Bill asked her to marry him and she said "no" because she was told she only had a couple of years, he told her that was better than none, so she said "yes," and were married for 40 years on this earth and now reunited. Bill and Dwala made their home in Robert Lee and Silver, and ended up in Silver with the creation of the Cedar Hill Ranch. They bred, raised and showed American Quarter Horses, raised Border Collies, and had many other "critters" that they loved.

Dwala loved showing her horses and riding, walks with her dogs, cross-stitch, quilting, books, puzzles, and Sudoku. She had a joyous and contagious laugh. She was blessed with wonderful friends who cared for her, helped and loved her and her family throughout her life and this final journey. She
