Construction in progress at low water crossing

Construction is currently in progress on the renovation project for the Dripping Springs low water crossing at Edith, Texas. The road through Dripping Springs is closed, and traffic is being re-routed through Fields Lane and Collier Road. Construction time for this project has been estimated from two to four weeks. The public's cooperation is requested during this construction period.

For additional information, please contact the Coke County Judge's office at (325) 453-2641.

Gospel in Color set for April 9

Robert Lee Baptist Church will be hosting The Gospel in Color on Saturday, April 9, beginning at 9:30 am. Following the event will be an Easter egg hunt. All ages are welcome and make sure to bring a basket.

Easter Extravaganza slated for April 9

First Baptist Church in Bronte will be hosting the "Walk with Jesus Easter Extravaganza" on Saturday, April 9, beginning at 11 am at the Bronte Park. Everyone is encouraged to attend this family fun event as you walk with Jesus, experiencing His last days on Earth. The annual Easter Egg Hunt and fellowship will follow.

FUMC-Bronte to host Holy Week Services

Holy Week is such an amazing time in our Christian faith. If you do not have a church family or your church is not having Holy Week services, First United Methodist Church in Bronte would be so happy to have you in their church!

Holy Week services are listed below:

Palm Sunday Worship is Sunday, April 10 at 11 am. This day is believed in the Christian faith as the day Jesus entered Jerusalem and is celebrated with palm fronds.

Maundy Thursday Worship is Thursday, April 14 at 6 pm. This day is believed in the Christian faith to be the day Jesus celebrated His final Passover.

Good Friday Service is Friday, April 15 at 6 pm. This day is celebrated as the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

The Easter Sunrise Service will be held on April 17 at 7 am at the Gentry Ranch (located 5 miles west of Bronte on Highway 158). This is an annual event and everyone is welcome! The churches of Bronte join together for this service. We plan to have the traditional breakfast after the service. As this is an outdoor event, dress for the unpredictable West Texas weather. A blanket would probably feel good this early in the morning.

The Easter Worship Service will be at 11 am. on April 17th in the First United Methodist Church sanctuary with Pastor

Stacy Sprinkle bringing the message and Lanette Fletcher leading the singing. Everyone is always welcome. Come, enjoy learning the Word, and worshipping the Risen Savior.

Egg My Yard slated for April 16

The Bronte Education Enrichment Foundation (BEEF) will be hosting their Egg My Yard event. Treat-filled eggs can be ordered to be hidden in your yard on Saturday, April 16, by their Easter bunnies.

All proceeds from the event will go to support Bronte ISD and scholarships for local students.

For more information or to order your eggs, email chelseamask13@gmail.com.

Grand celebration set for park

A grand celebration and rededication of the Cody Bill Park in Robert Lee will be held on Saturday, April 23, beginning at 11 am. Cookies and drinks will be served.
