 for further processing. These glasses will be sorted, cleaned, and provided to people who have vision problems, but no means to get glasses. The generous residents of Coke County are much appreciated.

CCRTA Meets

Coke County Retired Teachers Assn. met on Monday, April 20, 2015, at the first Baptist Church in Bronte, for the regular monthly noon meeting.

Charlotte Jackson presided and announced that dues were payable at this time. Dues may be mailed to CCRTA Treasurer, Janet Wommack, at Box 365, Bronte, Tx 76933.

The TRTA is the state organization for retired teachers and keeps members informed and also keeps a record of legislative action and informs legislators of TRTA concerns. TRTA covers all retirees concerns whether they are contributing members, or not. (See trta.org for legislation action and updates and retirement information.)

A donation to the Bronte and Robert Lee Project Graduations was approved. Books have been delivered to elementary libraries at Robert Lee and Bronte and a memorial to Jamie Boren has been made. Brenda Hines sent a health update to be passed around. Spring Leadership training will be in Brownwood next month.

Members present were Charlotte Jackson, Wanda Barbee, Gerald Sandusky, Ann Hamilton, Lee Wommack, Janet Wommack, Lana

Goodman, Leva Self, Sug Lahon, Cristie Bagwell, Beth Prather, and Donna Poehls.

The last meeting of summer will be Monday, May 18, 2015, at the First Baptist Church in Bronte.

School personnel are always welcome, and the food is outstanding. Meetings continue after the final May meeting in September. Attendance is a show of support for educators.
