Ag Law Seminar
set for May 23

The Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service will host an Ag Law seminar for West Texas counties May 23. The event will be broadcasted virtually to several in-person sites across the area for attendees to learn more about legal issues important to Texas landowners.

Carbon credit contracts are being discussed more and more by Texas agriculture producers. Producers and landowners across the state are trying to determine if these contracts are a good move for their operation.

This program will begin with a discussion of the key contract terms to consider when evaluating a carbon credit contract. The next topic will be a review of Texas fence law and the potential responsibilities and liabilities as it relates to landowners. The program will wrap-up with quick overview of other Hot Topics in Agricultural Law.

The program will be presented via Zoom at the various host sited across AgriLife Extension’s West Region. Registration will begin at 5:30 pm with program starting at 6 pm.

The Coke County meeting will be taking place at the Robert Lee Rec Hall, located at 170 Park Rd. Robert Lee, Texas 76945.

Tiffany Dowell Lashmet has served as an Agricultural Law Specialist for Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service since 2013. Tiffany’s work focuses on legal issues impacting Texas landowners and agricultural producers including leases, water law, oil and gas law, pipeline easement negotiation, estate planning, and landowner liability. She travels the state speaking at various meetings and conferences on these issues and has published several law review articles, extension fact sheets, magazine articles, and newspaper articles on these topics.

This program promises to offer something to everyone that attends, regardless of your experience. So, mark your calendars for May 23 at 5:30 pm and let us help you improve your understanding of the key issues

TxDOT to hold virtual
public meeting

The Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) - San Angelo District will conduct an online virtual public meeting for the 2023 - 2026 Rural Transportation Improvement Program (Rural TIP) on Friday, May 19, at 4 pm. Visit www.txdot.gov and key word search “San Angelo District 2022Rural RTIP”.

The purpose of this meeting is to provide information and receive comments on which transportation projects may be coming to your area. The San Angelo District includes Coke, Concho, Crockett, Edwards, Glasscock, Irion, Kimble, Menard, Reagan, Real, Runnels, Schleicher, Sterling, Sutton, and Tom Green counties. The Rural TIP includes all added capacity and regionally significant projects to be funded within a TxDOT District during the next four years, including those eligible for federal funding. As such, this meeting offers the public an opportunity to review and comment on the proposed priorities. The Rural TIP is the first step on the road to producing a Statewide Transportation Improvement Program (STIP).

The Rural TIP meetings are being held pursuant to Title 43, Texas Administrative Code, Section 16.102, which calls for an opportunity for public comment concerning the Rural TIP. The same information including a short presentation, exhibits explaining how the Rural TIP operates, and projects that are included in it will be available to view at each public meeting.

All community members are encouraged to attend any of the meeting options offered and provide written comments on the proposed program. Comments must be postmarked or otherwise June 1, 2022, to: TxDOT San Angelo District, Attn: Rural TIP; 4502 Knickerbocker Road, San Angelo, TX, 76904; or by email to John.Dewitt@txdot.gov, Attention: Rural TIP.

Special Accommodations: The virtual public meeting and in-person option will be conducted in English. If you need an interpreter or document translator because English is not your primary language or you have difficulty communicating effectively in English, one will be provided to you. If you have a disability and need assistance, special arrangements can be made to accommodate most needs. If you need interpretation or translation services or you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation to attend and participate in the
