Obituaries

Mathis

Annie Jewell Mathis, 99, of Brownwood, passed away Tuesday, May 5, 2015, in Brownwood, Texas. Graveside services were held at 2 pm, Saturday, May 9, 2015, at Fairview Cemetery, in Bronte, Texas. The family received friends from 6 pm until 8 pm, Friday, May 8, 2015, at Davis-Morris Funeral Home in Brownwood, Texas.

Annie Jewell Brock Mathis was born November 6, 1915, to Samuel and Mabelle (Combest) Brock, in Bronte, Texas. First and foremost, Annie was a Christian and she dearly loved the Lord. She was also an accomplished cook and enjoyed making people happy with her food. Annie also loved her family and looked forward to spending as much time with them as she could. Annie was a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin and friend and she will be dearly missed by all those who knew her.

Annie was preceded in death by her parents; J.B. Pairish, Nate Smith and Sterling Mathis; 3 brothers, Howard Brock, Hiram Brock, John "Jay" Brock; and her sister, Louzelle "Tootsie" Brock.

Annie leaves behind her son, Janson Pairish; step-daughter, Cindi Lindsey; 2 grandchildren, Shane Pairish and Melanie Lopez and husband Jacob; 4 great-grandchildren, Byron Lopez and wife Taylor, Blake Lopez, Baylee Lopez and Joseph Casillias and wife Mayra; 4 great-great-grandchildren, Kyndal Lopez, Jennesis Casillias, Naylene Casillias, and Jovani Casillias; nephew, Stanley Daulong and wife Kay; great-nephew, Lee Daulong; as well as several other nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Percifull

William Eugene "Will" Percifull passed away in Austin, Texas, on Thursday, May 7, 2015, surrounded by his family.

Will was born March 21, 1929, to Emma McCrohan Percifull and Daniel Franklin "Frank" Percifull in San Angelo, Texas. His family lived in Robert Lee, where Will attended Robert Lee Schools and St. Edward's University in Austin. In 1948, Will married Jean D. Rudicil from San Angelo; they had four daughters. Will's wife preceded him in death in 2009. Will's only sibling, his brother Frank Percifull, Jr., preceded him in death in 1983.

Will is survived by four daughters: Melinda L. Waring and husband, Joseph T. Waring, Sr; Kathy J. Simmons and husband, Thomas Clayton Simmons; Carolyn Sue Percifull; and Becky Lynn Percifull. He is also survived by two grandsons and three great-grandchildren: Joseph T. Waring, Jr. and Amy R. Waring and their two children, Joseph T. Waring, III and Lucy Claire R. Waring; and grandson, Zachary G. Waring and Rebecca A. Waring and their son, Tyler James Waring. Will is survived by his sister in law, Frances Dean Percifull. He is also survived by many beloved nieces, nephews and cousins.

Will lived his early life in Robert Lee where his father was a rancher and Sheriff of Coke County. He continued the ranching business along with his brother. Will served on the Robert Lee School Board and as Coke County Commissioner. In 1964, he began Percifull Construction, Inc. in Robert Lee and San Angelo. He and his wife moved to Austin in 1974 where they continued the construction business, along with land development, real estate brokering and investments.

Will was well respected for his integrity in community service, in business and in his personal relationships. He was a good man and will be greatly missed by his family, including the beloved family dog, Thunder.

The family would like to thank all of Will's doctors and caregivers who helped make his life better. A private memorial was held by the immediate family. If you would like to honor Will, please give to your local humane society or the charity of your choice.

Vision with a Purpose update posted

Vision with a Purpose held an officers meeting Wednesday, May 6, at Debbie Childers home in Robert Lee. Those present were Debbie Childers, Leta Caston, Dianne Hefner, Marshall Millican, Janie Munoz, Crystal Stanford and Grace Todacheeny.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss progress and determine where improvements might be needed.

New projects were introduced and the current status of present projects was discussed.

Possible new projects are: Rooster on top of gazebo, possibly hiring a handyman, representation at Street Affair and 4th of July activities.

Also, it was decided to look into donations from various entities.

These subjects were to be brought up at the next VP meeting on May 7 at 6 pm at Victory Assembly of God Church in Robert Lee.

Vision with a Purpose met at Victory Assembly of God Church in Robert Lee Thursday, May 7 at 6 pm.

Guests Randy Flanagan and Darren Clawson of Mountain Creek Golf Course discussed their cooperative plans with VP and the possibility of purchasing several golf carts adorned with the VP logo.

Two $500 scholarships are being given to two deserving Robert Lee Seniors who are furthering their education this fall. The winners will be announced at the May 28th Awards Program at the high school at 10 am.

It was decided as a group to sponsor one of our own for their EMR (Emergency Medical Responder) license. They will be reimbursed upon completion of the program.

The flower pots on Austin St. were planted by Noel and Clark Tinkler. The businesses where they're located are being asked to Townhall Meeting! United States Representative Mike Conaway was in Robert Lee last Wednesday afternoon for a townhall meeting at the Coke County Courthouse. With approximately thirty constituents in attendance, Conaway discussed several topics including the budget, brush control, social security, government waste, predator control and the school lunch program. He also discussed the Jade Helm 15 exercise, saying that there is nothing to worry about with regard to the military training exercise slated to begin in July. "I have great confidence that there's nothing untoward going on in this exercise," Conaway stated. He feels the misunderstanding regarding this exercise is rooted in the public's distrust of this president.
