

Easter Sunrise in Bronte

Bronte celebrated the Resurrection of Jesus with a sunrise service on the Kent and Juanette Gentry Ranch west of Bronte. Those attending were seated on log benches facing a tomb. The opening prayer was led by Rev. Everette Boyce, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Bronte.

Congregational singing was led by David Bedford and Wayne Coalson of the Church of Christ in Bronte.

Central Baptist Church's pastor, Rev. Dale Patterson, led the congregation in the Lord's Prayer.

Rev. Corey Cornutt of First Baptist Church in Bronte read from Matthew 28:1-10.

An offering was received in the amount of $413.00 for the Bronte Community Chest.

A drama telling the resurrection story was presented by local youth. An angel, Lonnie Griffith - Methodist Youth Director, stood by the tomb. The three women finding the tomb empty were portrayed by Darby Duncan, Payton Arrott and Whitney Boyd. Johnny Woehrle concluded the skit with a poem.

John Driggers, pastor of the Church of Christ in Bronte, offered a prayer.

The service was concluded with the "Charge and Sending Forth" by Rev. Everette Boyce.

Breakfast was enjoyed by 130 people from seven churches in Bronte, along with several out-of-town visitors.
