

Beverly Bell and Debra Brashear and High Rollers – Team Captain Ramona Taylor. Although there were no teams from Bronte this year, the Sorosis Club and the Bronte Teachers were involved by sending in donations. The RL Care Center team had a hamburger meal fundraiser at the Relay and gave cancer survivors a free meal. Other teams had various fundraisers and activities going on throughout the night. The High Rollers had a raffle of either a big screen TV or a rifle. The winner of their drawing was Jimmy Taylor. The “A” Team had a quilt raffle and the winner was D’Ann Eubanks.

The winners of various awards throughout the event were as follows: Miss Vegas - RLCC Team Royal Flush; Best Campsite – Rabbit Twisters; Best T-shirt – RL State Bank; Road to Recovery Race “Best of Show” – First United Methodist Church-RL; Road to Recovery Race 1st Place winner – RL Care Center Team Royal Flush; Top Fundraising Team – RL State Bank with $4,450.91; Best New Team – The “A” Team. The RL State Bank team won the Super Team Trophy this year which is based on a point system of several different items.

D.J. Boomer Kingston from KGKL was on hand all night to keep things going. At around 6:00 am, the Robert Lee-Silver Lion’s Club served up wonderful breakfast burritos to all the participants who had stuck it out and stayed the entire night.

(Continued from page 9) (7), Salado (4), Rankin (5) and Throckmorton (4). The Steers have not only won the State Tournament the past four years, but have dominated the competition, winning the State tournament by an average of 23 shots over the second place finisher. These Steers have gone undefeated against all Class A competitors during their four year run, a feat that will be hard to uphold in the years to come. These guys have been good, really good, and have raised the standards for future teams to look up to.

Lady Steers finish 6th at State

The Lady Steers competed at the State Tournament for the first time since 2007 and came home with a 6th place finish.

The girls were in the hunt for a medal after the first round of 384, but slipped to a 394 on day two and settled for 6th place with a 778 total. Two-time defending champion Baird won the girls tournament with a 710 total. Grapeland was 2nd at 731 and Memphis was third with a 751.

Sophomore Jordan Gartman led the Lady Steers with 85-88-173 total, which finished 12th amongst the medalists. Her 12th place finish was the best by a Lady Steer dating back to Melissa Smith’s 1st place finish in 1997 (160). Other Lady Steer’s scores were: junior, Meagan Ross 102-99-202 and seniors: Sarah Walker 97-105-203, Mandi Mendoza 100-102-202, and Kacee Roberts 118-116-234.
