A graduate of Reagan County (Big Lake) High School, she later worked as a medical secretary. After moving to her home outside of Robert Lee, she attended emergency medical service courses and was certified as a paramedic EMT. She was the Active in the Texas Association of EMTs (TAEMT), she served as state secretary for a number of years. She was selected as the statewide EMT of the Year in 1985. She graduated from Angelo State University in May 1985 and successfully passed her state board examinations in July 1985.

She retired from both E.M.S. and professional nursing in 1997 after a long battle with diabetes and heart disease.

The family requests memorials to the charity of choice.
