theme with Teddies, Tutu's and Tiaras. All ladies entered into the kingdom crossing the mote and were given a crown once they were seated. Lunch was served and door prizes given. Past speakers from previous years spoke for a moment and included Donna Hall, Pam Park, Sissie DeArmond, and Betty Wootton. Special speaker this year was Mary Lou Watkins from Freedom

Fellowship Church in San Angelo. Ladies attended from Robert Lee, Bronte, San Angelo, Odessa and Abilene. Victory Assembly of God was the sponsor for this event with the help of Irving and Betty Smith, Debbie Childers, and Grace Todacheeny. Special recognition goes to Krishna Beal, Christa McClellan, Noel & Company, Cindy's BBQ, Brandi Sheldon, Dave

Sheldon, Scott Smith, Rod Hale, and Todd Smith. The ladies from Victory Assembly assisted throughout the day preparing and serving the food and registering the guests. And of course we can't forget the men who assisted by setting up and tearing down the decorations. Plans are already in the works for next year's Tea. God loves his girls!

EPA's guidance to regulate private water harmful to ranchers

The Obama Administration issued guidance documents Wednesday that would allow the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the Army Corps of Engineers to regulate private bodies of water. This guidance reverses U.S. Supreme Court decisions and circumvents the lawmaking process as intended by U.S. Congress and the U.S. Constitution.

In 2010, the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association (TSCRA) and other industry organizations worked to defeat a bill in Congress that would have given the EPA this authority.
