The City Council has requested citizens residing in East Coke County or in the city limits, that would like to be a candidate for appointment to the Bronte Housing Authority Board, to come by or call City Hall to add their name to the appointment list. If you are interested in making a difference and serving the community, this is your chance. The Board will have a meeting four times a year. RL Senior Citizens

Center News

Robert Lee's Senior Citizen Center welcomes seniors on Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays at noon.

"Come early, stay late," they say. Staying late often includes a game of dominoes. Meanwhile the seniors work to assemble puzzles. When Susan Millegan was director, she began making the puzzles into pieces of art and displaying them on the walls of the Center at the Coke County Park on Austin Street. The walls of the Center are made interesting and inspiring with the displays.

There are puzzles made permanent for sale and the funds are used to purchase more puzzles and provide materials for other activities.
