Annual Pops Concert set for July 3

The San Angelo Symphony July 3rd Pops Concert - Presented by Multi-Chem will take place Tuesday, July 3rd at the Bill Aylor Sr. Memorial RiverStage located on the banks of the Concho River at 16 E. Avenue A. The gates will open at 12:00 pm; the Community Band will begin at 7:00 pm, followed by the San Angelo Symphony at 8:30 pm.

The free event, held annually is celebrating its 25th Anniversary, and continues to unite our community in a patriotic celebration to honor our military, our leaders and our country. This concert, which draws more than 35,000 in attendance, is now the 4th largest in the state of Texas.

The July 3rd Pops Concert features historic cannons from Fort Concho, aircraft flyover, military pageantry including the men and women of Goodfellow Air Force Base, symphonic songs of celebration performed by Maestro Hector Guzman and the San Angelo Symphony, and a Fireworks Extravaganza sponsored by Mayfield Paper Company.

For over 60 years, the San Angelo Symphony has been an oasis of cultural activity in a thirteen-county region of West Texas known as the Concho Valley. In that same spirit, the July 3rd Pops Concert has served to enrich the lives of those living in our area and beyond.

General admission is free, but reserved seating is available for purchase at the San Angelo Symphony office located at 36 E. Twohig (in the historic Cactus Hotel) on the mezzanine level.
