Donations! Robert Lee first responder groups were presented with checks last week from Vision with a Purpose. The funds were raised through the May 5 'San Angelo Gives', a powerful 24-hour online giving event that connects the Concho Valley with community non-profits to reinforce the value of both local philanthropic giving and community engagement. This year Vision with a Purpose chose to support the Robert Lee Volunteer Fire Department, West Coke County EMS, and the Coke County Food Bank. On this one day the campaign raised $3,585. The funds were amplified by $132.07 for a total of $3,717.07, which was divided among the three volunteer groups. The volunteers who support our community and took time to give are appreciated. The Coke County Food Bank volunteers (top left photo, from left to right) Joe McKnight, Mary Daniels, Delores Roe, and Melba Gray are pictured with a check for $1,239.02. West Coke County EMS volunteers (top right photo, from left to right) include Houston McGuire, Jason Moran, Cynthia Skipworth, Grace Todacheeny, Becca McGuire, and Melissa Fletcher. Grace displays the check they received for $1239.02. Robert Lee Volunteer Fire Department volunteers (right photo) Brandon Davis and Captain Ross Torres display the check they received for $1239.02.
