Obituaries

Hoover

Lorian Rice Hoover, age 56, of Bronte, Texas, passed away May 25, 2021 after fighting a long illness.

Lorian was born August 22, 1964 in Wetzel County, West Virginia, to parents, Betty May Rice and Daniel Clifford Rice. She married Herbert Hoover in April of 1984 and then they moved to Bronte, Texas, on Christmas Day of 1984 and that is where they made their home. She spent the rest of her life with her husband raising her two kids and then watching her two grandchildren grow up. Her favorite things to do was play board games and watch movies and tv shows with her grandchildren and teach her granddaughter how to cook and do other household things. She loved to spoil her grandchildren and gave them more than they could ever ask for. She helped her daughter Romana as much as she could any time she asked for help. She was an avid small pet owner. More recently her other favorite thing to do was play with her cat "Kit Kat" that she rescued as a stray and taking care of her dog, JoJo.

She is survived by husband, Herbert Hoover of Bronte, Texas; her son, Richard Hoover of Texas; her daughter, Romana Hoover of San Angelo, Texas; her grandchildren, Kylie and Daniel Martin of San Angelo Texas; Rosemary Horner and her family of Ashland, Ohio; and stepmother Ruth Rice of Ashland, Ohio.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Betty May Rice; her father, Daniel Clifford Rice; her brother, Jeffery Michael Rice; and her brother, Steven Rice.

No services are planned per Lorian's request.

Arrangements were by Shaffer Funeral Home/Bronte.

Online condolences can be made at www.shafferpioneer.com.

Summer Reading

Program in progress

The Coke County Library Children's Summer Reading Program began Tuesday, June 1. Reading logs may be picked up during business hours at the library. Once completed, participants will receive a free one time use pool pass for either the Bronte or Robert Lee pool.

Food Handlers Class available on request

The "Texas Food Establishment Rules (TFER)" now requires all food employees to complete an accredited food handler training program within 60 days of employment.

A food handlers course accredited by the Texas Department of State Health Services is being offered by Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, Coke County Extension Office. Food Safety: It's In Your Hands is available upon request.

This 1-2-hour course will now be required for all food service employees to help promote the service of safe food. The certificate is good for 2 years and is valid anywhere in the State of Texas. The course is a basic overview of food safety practices that are necessary to ensure that safe food is served at your establishment. Practices discussed include good personal hygiene, cross contamination, and time and temperature abuse.

To register for the course, call the Coke County Extension office at 325-453-2461. Registration can also be done in-person the day of the course. The cost is $20.00 per person and must be paid in full before the course begins. The class is taught in English, but Spanish handouts are available if requested in advance.

Individual with disabilities who require auxiliary aide service or accommodation to participate in the event are encouraged to contact our office within 5 working days prior to the program. Educational programs of Texas A&M

AgriLife Extension Service are open to all people without regard to race, color, sex, disability, religion, age, national origin or genetic information or veteran status.

2021 Young Farmer & Rancher Contests slated

The applications for the Texas Farm Bureau (TFB) 2021 Outstanding Young Farmer & Rancher (OYF&R) and Excellence in Agriculture (EIA) contests are now open.

"Texas has a lot of farms, ranches and businesses that are unique, and this contest is a great way to highlight them," Kaylin Isbell, TFB YF&R Advisory Committee chair, said. "Every farmer and rancher - regardless of size, commodity or farming practices - has a place in Texas agriculture and Texas Farm Bureau. And this contest recognizes and rewards young farmers."

The annual contests are a way to highlight the achievements of the younger generation.

Applicants for both contests must be between the ages of 18 and 35 as of January 31, 2022, and be current TFB members in good standing.

Applicants can apply as individuals or married couples.

"Innovative, diverse, dedicated - these are all qualities of young farmers and ranchers in Texas," Roger Hall, TFB associate director Organization division, leader development, said. "On the farm, in the classroom or in the ag business industry, they are doing great things, and this a unique opportunity to showcase their endeavors and reward them for it."

But there's more to the contests.

"Filling out the application is probably the most beneficial part of the process," Isbell said. "It's a time of self-reflection on your business. How did you adapt in the last year or five years? What did you learn and how can you improve? The self-growth and awareness in all areas of your farm is truly beneficial."

Both contests also serve as a tool to help guide farmers and ranchers in personal and professional growth, he said.

Outstanding Young Farmer & Rancher Contest

The Outstanding YF&R Contest recognizes young farmers and ranchers who are actively engaged in farming or ranching.

"This contest highlights and rewards dedication and ingenuity, but it also gives young farmers and ranchers an avenue to promote agriculture, conservation, advocacy efforts and more," Hall said.

One winner is chosen from each of TFB's 13 districts. Of those, three finalists are selected after a second round of judging. The judges will then visit each of the three finalists' farm or ranch
