Conservation! On May 10, 2019, Max Brown (right) was presented with a Soil and Water Conservation District board member entryway sign. Mr. Brown was elected as the District Zone 1 director in the fall of 2018. Max has always had a tie to west Coke County through his family but decided to make Robert Lee his home several years ago. He operates Salt Creek Ranch and has been improving his land through conservation practices planned by the Robert Lee field office. His dedication to conservation and being a good steward make him an excellent addition to the Soil and Water Conservation District board. Pictured with Max is Joe Ash, District Zone 5 director.
