Chili and Barbecue Cook-off set for Saturday, June 9

A Chili and Barbecue Cook-off will be held Saturday, June 9, at the AMA/TechTel Pavilion. The Pavilion is located at the Blackwell Roping Arena in Blackwell. A playday will be held in the arena that day and dance at the pavilion that night. The playday will begin at 6 pm. The dance, featuring the Steve Helms Band, will begin at 9 pm.

The chili cook-off is sanctioned by CASI. This qualifies the winning teams for the Terlingua International Chili Cook-off.

The barbecue cook-off is sanctioned by LSBS. All competitors will be allowed to start setting up on Friday if necessary.

The day begins with a cook-off meeting at 8 am. The Bloody Mary competition will be held at 10 am, followed by the jalapeno poppers at 11 am and pinto beans at 12 noon. The afternoon's judging begins at 1 pm with barbecued chicken, followed by chili at 2 pm, margaritas at 3 pm, ribs at 4 pm and briskets at 5 pm.

A full concession will be available all day. The event is BYOB and attendees are encouraged to bring lawn chairs.

For more information, contact Tommy White at (325) 370-1119 or Joel Lemley at (325) 668-3552. For information on the playday, call Diane McGlothlin at (325) 450-5419.

BHRC to host annual July 4th event

Bronte Health & Rehab Center is hosting their annual July 4th dinner, auction and fireworks show. This year's event will be held Wednesday, July 4, at Bronte Health & Rehabilitation Center beginning at 6:30 pm.

Donations for the auction are needed and very much appreciated. All the proceeds go to the Auxiliary which represents and meets the needs of the Center's residents.

Everyone is welcome to attend the free meal and auction as well as enjoy the firework display. BHRC hopes to have everyone's support in making this event successful.

District Retired Teachers meeting slated for June 19

Details are being completed on the District XV Texas Retired Regional Meeting. Brownwood is the location. Tuesday, June 19, is the date. Ten o'clock a.m. is the time. Tim Lee, Executive Director of the Texas Retired Teachers Association is the speaker. The TRTA pension plan future is the subject.

The "Defined Benefit" pension plan was established in 1936 in the Texas State Constitution. Education and educators were deemed important enough to the state to be included in the Constitution. Now, legislators are being encouraged to alter the long-standing plan to a "Define Contribution" which does not include beneficiary coverage, nor health coverage, nor insurance and which runs out when the contribution of the retiree runs out.

Spotlight on Smokeless Tobacco! Recently students from Mrs Palmer's 6th grade class at Robert Lee Elementary school participated in mini curriculum unit "Spotlight on Smokeless Tobacco" presented by Jan Yanez Family and Consumer Science county agent. This program gives middle age youth the knowledge and skills they need to resist smokeless tobacco use. Upon completion of the students journal and class participation each student received a t-shirt. Class members included: Kelsey Benson, Meghan Bohannon, Jayce Bower, Bethany Coppedge, William Coppedge, Josh Gregston, Jorge Mendoza, Margo Mendoza, A.J. Minjarez, Mariah Munoz, Kiara Padgett, Tavo Rangel, Braden Richardson, Kourtney Roach, Samantha Roe, Rachel Russell, Julian Torres, and Jessica Wheat.

Currently there are over 312,000 educational retirees or their beneficiaries in Texas who contribute about 7.2 billion dollars into the Texas economy. Texas teachers opted to pay into a pension plan supported by the Texas legislators, rather than into Social Security overseen on a federal level.

All active school personnel and retirees are encouraged to mark their calendars for this District XV sponsored meeting in Brownwood, Tuesday, June 19 at 10 a.m. in the Brownwood Coliseum.
