What a Difference a Year Makes! In 2014, all Coke County Observer/Enterprise rain reporters had caught less than one half inch of rain in the first quarter. This year, at the end of the first quarter, all were reporting almost or over 5". Following this past May's great rainfall, some of the reporters are over 20"! May's rainfall ranged from a low of 5.66" on 7 Mile Hill to a high of 11.40" at Edith. Praise the Lord for the life-giving showers.

the Bronte Park. He stated that there will be a fun day on Saturday at 10:00.

County/District Clerk Mary Grim reported on tax judgements.

Judge Pro Tem Montgomery reported that bridge inspections are coming, state right or ways, and need to request to TXDot for materials.

There being no private road work requests, no action was taken.

Comm. Williams made a motion to pay bills. The motion was seconded by Comm. Sefcik. Motion carried.

Judge Pro Tem Montgomery adjourned the meeting at 9:35 am.

TMCN to co-host seminar for elected officials

Texas Midwest Community Network (TMCN) and West Central Texas Council of Governments (WCTCOG) will host an Elected Officials Seminar on July 14th at the WCTCOG Conference Center located at 3702 Loop 322 in Abilene. The seminar will provide key insights to elected officials in such areas as relationships between councils, city managers and city staff; ethics and conflicts of interest; parliamentary procedures; and budgeting. Attendees will also be given an opportunity to network and share ideas during small group roundtable discussions. Lunch will be provided.

The seminar will be held from 9:30 am to 3:15 pm. Reservations are requested by Friday, July 10th and can be made by calling or emailing the TMCN Office at 325-795-8626 or tmcn@tmcn.org.

Texas Midwest Community Network is a regional 51 community member organization focused on community and economic development, regional promotion, education, and legislative awareness. A network of "communities working together to accomplish what one community cannot do alone", TMCN sponsors networking events throughout the year and projects to market the region for business and tourism development.

West Central Texas Council of Governments is a political subdivision or governmental unit of the state of Texas serving the 19 counties addressing issues such as regional planning, economic and community development, hazard mitigation and emergency planning, aging services, water use, pollution control, 9-1-1 services, law enforcement training, youth and community programs and transportation planning.
