Check Out Coke County Library

Winners in the weekly Friday drawing at the Coke County Library were readers Megan Grantham and Karmen Radloff. They can pick up their certificates for a treat at Rhonda and Judy's snow cone shop. All the summer-time readers' names will be put in for the final drawing for a Supreme pizza at the Pizza Barn.

Summer is the time for students to get to do self-directed reading. They can look at many of the books at the library and choose whatever ones they want to read. It doesn't have to be grade-level, it can and often should be, a book that's easy and fun to read. That's what summer is about. Reading maintains skills learned at school. By interpreting words and pictures and plots, the brain gets its exercise.

Imagine pinning one arm against a child's side for a month...the arm would be useless for a while afterwards. That's also true with the brain because it is a functioning muscle of the body, too.

Two really nice donations of romance books and inspirational reading material have been received at the library. These books are ready to go.

Library hours are Tuesdays, 8-12; Wednesdays, 8-4; Thursdays, 1-5; Fridays, 8-12. Call 453-2495 for information.

King Family Reunion held June 25

Fifty-six descendants and friends of Sam and Anna King met for their 50th annual reunion on Saturday, June 25, 2011, in Robert Lee.

Sam and Anna (Benson) King were long time residents of Coke County. Sam and Anna were married January 1, 1890, in the home of W.C. Benson in Edith.

The first recorded King Family Reunion was held back in 1961 at Green Mountain. Much discussion was about when the very first reunion was actually held but came to the conclusion that it coincided with the Edith homecomings. Many of the early reunions were held in the Boy Scout building.

The day was spent eating, visiting, swimming, sharing pictures and trying to stay cool. Jess Gaines led the prayer before lunch and had the "hat passed" for donations. The group was entertained that afternoon by Ashley Saiz, Emily McClellan and Gracie McClellan putting on a tumbling show. That evening, Darlene Kelly gave a financial report and Lavelta McVicker led the prayer before the meal. A moment of remembrance for Frank Otis King, Lorraine Brooks, Loucille Middleton, Annie Faye Gaines and Evelyn Edwards was given. It was mentioned that Eugenia Smith was the oldest attending; she will be 90 on July 24. Everyone had a good time and is looking forward to next year.

City of Robert Lee further restricts outdoor watering

In order to comply with City Ordinance #1140 Drought Contingency Plan, passed and approved July 10, 2006, the City must achieve a 35% reduction in daily demand. Therefore, the Robert Lee City Council has initiated the next step of Stage 3 Water Shortage Restrictions. As of July 1, there will be no outside watering (household use only). Violators will be fined up to $500.00 for each offense. If a 35% reduction is not achieved, the next phase will be a pro-rata allocation of water per customer with a surcharge of five times the normal water charge for water deliveries in excess of the monthly allocation.

These steps may seem severe, but the extended drought, three major fires, and extreme heat and wind conditions have taken a toll on area lakes. The water well field that the Upper Colorado River Authority is developing is moving forward but not at a rate that is keeping up with conditions. The City of Robert Lee is also working with the Texas Division of Emergency Management to seek help with an interconnection with another water system or other water source. For further information call City Hall at 453-2831.
