McCutchen attends conference

Coke County Sheriff Wayne McCutchen recently attended the Sheriff's Association of Texas 135th Annual Training Conference at the American Bank Center in Corpus Christi. Over 1,500 were in attendance.

The first Sheriff's Association of Texas Conference was held in 1878. Held annually in various cities across the state, this event allows Sheriffs, Deputies, Federal, State, and City Law Enforcement Officers to network and discuss different issues affecting law enforcement across the state and nation.

This year, participants received training on a variety of topics including: Crimes in Texas/Border Violence, Criminal Profiling, Bail Bonds, Homicide Investigations, New Legislation, Strength Based Leadership and Supervision, Tracking Dogs, Mental Health Issues in Jails, Active Shooter Response, Human Trafficking, State Agency Updates, Narco-Terrorism, Public Safety Broadband Program and using Social Media as an Investigative Tool.

Participants also had the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the latest in crime fighting tools and technology at more than 200 exhibitor booths.

The Sheriffs Association of Texas (SAT) is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to increasing the effectiveness of local law enforcement in Texas. Through the support of their members, SAT provides training, legal/technical information, and other critical resources to Peace Officers in Texas. They also honor fallen officers with their Lost Lawman Memorial.

For further information on the Sheriffs Association of Texas and how to join as an associate member, visit www.txsheriffs.org or call (512) 445-5888.

21st Annual
Mesquite Show
Returning to Fredericksburg

The 2013 Texas Mesquite Arts Festival returns to Fredericksburg, Texas on October 11, 12, and 13.

Juried artists from around Texas and beyond will gather in Fredericksburg Marktplatz for a three-day celebration of the exquisite and attractive mesquite.

"Besides seeing the absolute best selection of mesquite, visitors will enjoy the largest mesquite show in the world," show organizer Al Carr said.

The festival, like mesquite wood itself, has come a long way since the first event in 1992. Fourteen mesquite woodworkers gathered then for a seminar. According to Carr, they weren't the only ones showing interest in mesquite.

"So many local people dropped in to see what we were doing and to try to buy our work, we realized Fredericksburg was the best place on earth to have a Texas Mesquite Arts Festival," Carr said.

Several members that regularly exhibit at the show were featured in the September/October 2010 issue of Texas Journey.

The Mesquite Arts Festival has become one of the top events in Fredericksburg. Organizers expect over 10,000 visitors during the weekend.

Visitors will be treated to collections of sculpted wood from the world's absolute finest mesquite craftsmen. Items range from large furniture items such as beds, dressers and chairs made entirely from mesquite, to unique craft and gift items such as beautifully turned lamps, delicate scroll work, handsome pen and pencil sets, unique Christmas tree ornaments, sturdy gun stocks, and sculpted vases, all carefully crafted of mesquite.

Once viewed as a nuisance, mesquite has become the darling of architects and retailers. Mesquite's growing appeal comes in part from the high profile offered from this festival, according to Carr. Additional articles praising mesquite's quality and value have appeared in such magazines as AAA's Texas Journey, Texas Highways, Veranda, and Fine Woodworking.

"Architects now vie to install mesquite accents in upscale homes," Carr said. Mantles, doors, flooring, art items, dining sets, tables, and other furniture are increasingly requested in mesquite. Prices for raw wood as well as finished pieces have soared.

The Texas Mesquite Arts Festival is free and open to the public. Hours are Friday, noon to 6 pm; Saturday, 10 am-6 pm; and Sunday, 10 am-3 pm. Items are available for purchase, with food and drink sold on the grounds. Free parking surrounds Market Square in downtown Fredericksburg.
