Revival set for Pecan Baptist

Pecan Baptist Church will hold revival services Sunday through Wednesday, July 31 to August 3, 2016. On Sunday, there will be a service at 11 am that morning and at 7 pm that evening. Services will be held at 7 pm each evening Monday through Wednesday.

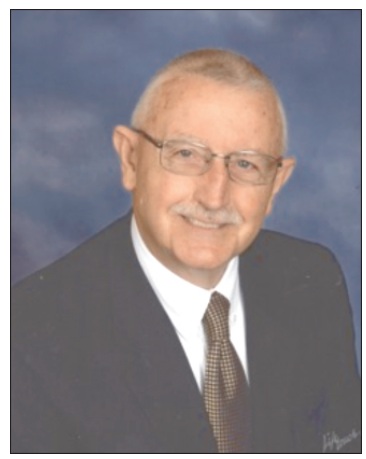

Dr. Tony Cleaver will serve as evangelist for the revival. Dr. Cleaver is the inaugural Director of Distance Education for Baptist Missionary Association Theological Seminary in Jacksonville, Texas. He is also a Professor of Biblical Literature.

At this time, Dr. Cleaver provides pulpit supply and interim pastoral services. During his pastoral career, he has served churches in Texas and Mississippi. He was the first US Army Chaplain for his denomination. This ministry placed him in congregations in Asia, Europe, and on both coasts of North America. He was chosen to serve on the Staff and Faculty for the Chaplain Center and School before his retirement. He retired from the U.S. Army Chaplaincy in 1992, but was called back to active duty for the Global War on Terrorism in 2003.

Dr. Cleaver was chair of the Religion Department of Jacksonville College where he taught leadership, preaching, and several Old and New Testament courses. He has served the Baptist Missionary Association in many ways including the role as a trustee for the Baptist Progress and the State Administrative Committee. In addition to Christian ministry, Dr. Cleaver also pursued a career in public education, becoming a special education teacher for the Killeen Independent School District, Killeen, Texas and then a school counselor in Killeen and In Florence, Texas.

He earned his bachelors and masters degrees from Baylor University, and earned his divinity degrees from Baptist Missionary Association Theological Seminary (M.Div.)

and Luther Rice Seminary (D.Min.). His wife of 50 years, Jerrie Sue, has been a professor in the Office Technology Department at Central Texas College in Killeen for 30 years. They have established their home, Hallelujah House, in Ding Dong. The Cleavers have three grandsons and one granddaughter. Elliot and Silas live with their parents, Michael and Amelia Hartman (daughter) in Dallas. Max Cleaver, their son, and daughter-in-law, Brandie, reside in Richmond with their twins, Eli and Ava.
