Robert Lee Pipeline Appreciation Dinner held Saturday, June 30

The City of Robert Lee hosted an appreciation dinner Saturday evening in the Robert Lee Cafetorium for all those who made the water pipeline between Bronte and Robert Lee possible.

Robert Lee Mayor John Jacobs presided over the event. He welcomed the crowd and acknowledged the landowners who allowed the pipeline to be installed on their property. They include Horace Scott; the Blair Family - Curtis, Joe Dee, and Jimmy; the late Sharon Givins, represented by her husband, Bill, and son, Shane Kelton; Connie Hobough; Bobby and Gayle Bolding; Mary Fistis Warren and Diana Whithen Warren; and the Coke County Roping Club.

Robert Lee Baptist Church Pastor Danny White gave the Invocation.

Following the meal of barbecue and all the trimmings or fish and all the trimmings, others were recognized.

Those who helped with the celebration included Glenda Mathers, Bill Heffner, Ivey Motor Company, Inc., Robert Lee State Bank, Coke County Hardware, Randy and Camille Flanagan and Bobby and Jeffie Roberts. Robert Lee's Vision with a Purpose served the meal which was prepared by Jack Horton and group, who cooked the brisket; Sid Burns and group, who fried the fish; and Marshall Millican and Noel Tinkler who assisted in preparing the remainder of the meal. Mayor Jacobs also showed his appreciation for Robert Lee ISD providing the cafetorium for the dinner.

He recognized several during the course of the event. They include Fuller Grocery Store in Colorado City, represented by Mr. Alvarez; Sunset Well Service, represented by Polly Abalos; the City of Bronte; Robert Lee Care Center; individuals from the community, churches and school organizations.

Presented with awards at the end of the evening were HEB, represented by Lynn Shipley; Allsup's, represented by Ben Hayes; Coke County, represented by Bobby Blaylock, Commissioner Precinct 4; Caston & Company, represented by Leta Caston; Dale Wojtek; Vermeer Company; W.E.B.
