Vision with a Purpose update

Vision with a Purpose met Thursday, August 6, at their headquarters on Austin St. at 6 pm in Robert Lee. Twenty-four members were present.

A wonderful meal was provided by Cheko's Tex-Mex Grill, 500 Commerce St., Robert Lee.

After the reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report, a membership dues update was presented by Clair Guidici and her committee. Dues for the year were decided on. Everyone is encouraged to join this spirited community organization.

A special visitor, Katie Drennan, asked VP to run the Football Concession Stand this fall for Project Graduation, a party for graduating Robert Lee seniors. It was voted and approved to do so for the four home games.

Sons of Pitches Baseball Tournament was held Friday night, August 7, at the City Park in Robert Lee. Ten teams from all over West Texas were registered. Concession and T-shirts were being sold and banners were displayed on the back fence. The first game started at 10 pm.

VP would like the City of Robert Lee to maintain the much improved concession stand in the city park. Members have worked hard to clean and fix the stand for future use by the community. It will be discussed with the County Commissioners.

The construction and purchase of a "Rabbit Twister" was approved by all members. It will be installed in Memorial Park soon.

Also, plans for the "Hunter's BBQ" to be held November 7 are moving right along. Included will be a delicious meal with all the fixins. There will also be a raffle including 2 rifles, a Yeti cooler, BBQ pit and much more. Raffle tickets will be on sale soon from VP members.

The next meeting of VP will be held Saturday, September 3, at 5:30 for long range planning and 6:30 for the regular meeting at our facility on Austin Street. Everyone is welcome.
