

Deer Management workshop set for September 23

A Whitetail Deer Management Workshop and Ranch Tour will be held at the Texas A&M AgriLife Research and Extension Center in San Angelo on Friday, September 23. Registration is at 8:30 am and the program begins at 9 am and will run until 3 pm.

Topics for the morning will include: Aging Deer on Hoof and By Mouth; Whitetail Hunting Management; Getting to Know Your Deer - Necropsy and Health; Nutrition and Supplemental Feeding.

Following the lunch, a Ranch Tour will be held, with Plant ID, Brush Sculpting, and using game cameras for deer census.

4-H News

By Morgan Runyan

Now that the school year is back in full swing there are lots of opportunities for students to be involved in a variety of activities and organizations. 4-H has an abundance of projects, contests, and community service activities that each member can find something that suits their likes or sparks their interest. 4-H can help each of us develop our public speaking, leadership, and citizenship skills that will serve throughout the rest of our lives. These projects include but are not limited to shooting sports, dog project, consumer decision making, junior master gardeners and sewing projects. So if you are interested in an organization that can help develop life skills, spark your passion, and give you an opportunity to help pay for your college education then 4-H is the organization for you!! Meetings for Bronte are the first Wednesday of the month and Robert Lee is the second Wednesday of the month. This year Coke Co. 4-H is going to do some new things, so stay tuned for all of the upcoming fun!!!

ATTENTION ALL PARENTS: There will be an Ag 4-H Project meeting held on September 26 from 6-7:30 at the Coke Co. Rec Hall. There will also be a Food and Nutrition project meeting on the same day at the Robert Lee FCCLA Classroom at 4:15, watch the Coke County Extension Facebook page for updates. The Ag Project meeting will give parents and 4-Hers information about possible projects and contest for the upcoming fall, winter, and spring. Projects that will be highlighted are Shooting Sports, Wool/ Livestock Judging, Swine/Beef Quiz Bowl, Entomology Collection/ Identification, Livestock Projects, and Livestock Skill-a-Thon. Enrollment in 4-H can be done online at texas.4honline.com for new, re-enrolling members, and volunteers are also welcome to enroll. Please email Morgan Runyan (morgan.runyan@ag.tamu.edu) or Kandice Everitt (kandice.everitt@ag.tamu.edu) if you need enrollment steps or have

Caregiver Conference slated

Are you caring for a loved one who does not reside in a nursing home or medical facility? The care recipient can be a spouse, aging parent, or other relative who is unable to physically tend to themselves, has Alzheimer's disease or related disorder, and requires substantial supervision due to age or illness.

The Area Agency on Aging will host a Caregiver Conference on Thursday, September 29, 2016, from 8:30 am to 2 pm at 2801 W. Loop 306, Suite A, San Angelo, TX 76904. This is a FREE event. Lunch is included with registration and door prizes will be awarded

Participants will learn how to identify stressors related to the Caregiver Process and how to manage it, training on safe transfers and preventing falls, how to have an effective doctor's visit, and community resources available for Caregivers.

Seating is limited, so reserve your spot today. You may call Abigail Perez at 325-223-5704 or toll-free at 1-877-944-9666.
