Roberts honored as Adult Silver Clover Leader

Texas AgriLife Extension Service's annual Silver Clover Recognition Banquet celebrated its 44th year August 11 in San Angelo. This year's event recognized 28 individuals who are instrumental to the success of AgriLife Extension's West Central District 4-H youth program. The leader honored from Coke County was Douglas Roberts. Douglas has been a volunteer 4-H leader for more than 17 years.

"Top volunteers are the backbone of all successful 4-H programs," said Garrett Gilliam. "They put in countless hours of work helping 4-H members become successful."

"The 4-H youth program offers a variety of projects, activities and events tailored specifically to support and enhance volunteer participation and involvement in kids' lives," he said. "This is our time as AgriLife Extension agents to show them the appreciation they deserve."

Gilliam said each county selects nominees who are then chosen by a committee comprised of area electric cooperative personnel and AgriLife Extension officials. The banquet is sponsored by the rural electric cooperatives serving the 23 counties in AgriLife Extension's District 7 in West Central Texas.

Meetings in Robert Lee will be held the first Wednesday of the month beginning September 7, 2011. The senior 4-H group, grades

7-12, will meet during the lunch period at the Catholic Church hall and the junior 4-H group, grades 3-6 will meet after school in the cafeteria. 4-H Serving the Community! The District 7 4-H Clothing committee recently participated in providing the San Angelo Pregnancy Center with tie baby blankets. 4-H members from 21 surrounding counties provided these blankets as part of the clothing committee community service project. Participating from Coke County was Sarah Wade and from Sterling County, Maggie Terry and Addison Coburn.

Being a member of 4-H offers vast opportunities to gain valuable experience in leadership, learning responsibility, inter-action with others and knowledge in several project areas. Many people have the misconception that 4-H members only learn to cook, sew or have livestock projects, but 4-H is "more than just cooking and cows." Youth can participate in project areas including: gardening, horticulture, electricity, shooting sports, archery, government, wildlife, dog care and training, poultry and numerous other learning experiences. Through project work, being on judging teams, public speaking, method demonstrations and other 4-H areas, youth can learn valuable lessons in responsibility, being able to think for themselves, be able to speak in front of groups and other beneficial lessons to help them in their lives later on. Also, 4-H is not just for youth—adults and parents are encouraged to become involved as volunteer leaders to assist in club meetings and various project groups.

Additional information can be obtained by calling (325) 453-2461.

Beginning this year, as part of the Extension Service's "Partial Cost Recovery Initiative", each 4-H member will be REQUIRED to pay a yearly $20 membership fee.

All members must register by September 30, 2011. If you are not registered before October 1, fees will increase to $25. 4-H members may sign up at any time, however on Monday, September 12, agents will be at the Coke county courthouse from 4-6 p.m and on Tuesday, September 20, agents will be at City Hall in Bronte from 4-6 p.m. 4-H members must be a paid member to participate in any 4-H program or activity. You may also come by the Extension office Monday-Thursday 8-5, Friday 8-1 to register and pay enrollment fee.

WHAT IS HELL LIKE?

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: The rich man also dies, and was buried;

And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus evil things: But now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: So that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come to this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

And he said, Nay, father Abraham: But if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. • Luke 16:20-31
