Steers win season opener

By Jose Morales

The Robert Lee Steers started the 2022 season on August 26 with a win at home against the Rotan Yellowhammers. The Steers took an early lead in the first quarter and kept up the intensity in the second quarter to finish the first half on top of the Yellowhammers. Rotan started the third quarter with a touchdown, but the Steers responded right back with a pair of touchdowns to end the game late in the third quarter by the Mercy Rule. The Steers will hit the road on September 2 and travel to Ackerly for their next Friday night game vs. Sands. Steer fans come on out and support your Robert Lee Steers.

Longhorns take on Bulldogs

Last week both high school teams traveled to Zephyr to take on the Bulldogs. The JV played with great effort, but fell short 32-12. They continue to make great progress, and we're super proud of them.

The varsity team had to battle injuries and a slew of other challenges that usually plague teams in the first game of the season. The showed great toughness and competitiveness throughout the game. In spite of playing the majority of the 2nd half with only six players, we came away the victory 44-37. Jayton and Teegan had outstanding performances on the offensive side, and Cole and Teegan anchored our defense. Roy Flores recorded his first varsity touchdown when he caught a two yard pass in the 2nd half. Cole had a team high with 19 tackles. As coaches, we were very pleased with the effort that our boys played with.
#3 Spencer Smith: 9 tackles;
#4 Teegan Minjarez: 123 yards, 3 TD, 15 tackles;
#7 Roy Flores: 2 yards, 1 TD, 6 tackles;
#8 Cole Knight: 90 yards, 1 TD, 19 tackles;
#12 Jayton Galvan: 157 yards, 3 TD, 8 tackles;
#21 Aiden Beck: 82 yards.
This week the varsity will play in Rule on Friday at 7:30 pm.

Junior High continues to practice as they prepare for their first game next week against Veribest.
