West Texas Is A Wonderful Place To Live! West Texans are known for pulling together to help others. Many of the wonderful people in this area bought tickets to a fundraising drawing benefitting Janel Vaughn. A total of $10,905 was raised toward her medical expenses. Janel has been diagnosed with cancer and is undergoing treatments through M D Anderson in Houston and Shannon Regional Cancer Treatment Center in San Angelo. The beef for the drawing was donated by Danny Hoyt and Wayne Coalson at a discounted price from Corby Kelso. Processing will be furnished for free by Sklenarik's Smoked Meats in Miles. Tickets were sold at First National Bank and by many energetic friends and family. A lucky person from Garden City won the drawing held Monday, September 16, 2013, at First National Bank. An earlier hamburger sale, sponsored by the First National Bank of Sterling City, raised $3,512 toward Janel's medical expenses. The bank furnished all of the food, with employees and friends cooking and selling the hamburger meals. Other donations have been made to a special account for Janel at the First National Bank. Friends of the Vaughn Family have come forward from all over West Texas to help this family who has been so generous to others. Their tireless work at ball games, rodeos, livestock shows and community projects has brought others who want to help them in return.

An upcoming Benefit Dinner and Auction in Janel's honor will be held at 5:30 pm Saturday,

October 12, at the Miles Young Farmers Show Complex in Miles, Texas. For information about auction donations or the dinner, contact Doug Frey at 325-473-8819, John or Karen Hoelscher at 325-650-4344 or 325-212-8686, Kei Antilley, Robert Lee State Bank, at 325-453-2545, Cindy McMillan at 432-213-3308, or Jolene Henderson, First National Bank in Bronte, at 325-473-2911.
