Obituaries

Maddux

Carolynn "Carr" Prine Maddux passed from this life to the Father on Tuesday, September 11, 2012, after a courageous battle with cancer. Private graveside services were held in the Robert Lee Cemetery. Services were under the direction of Shaffer Funeral Home.

Carolynn was born to J.M. and Mary Prine in Bronte, Texas, on October 31, 1947. She lived in many parts of the world, some of which included Little Rock, Arkansas, Labrador, Canada, Big Spring and Abilene, Texas, and Biloxi, Mississippi, however, she always called the Sanco Valley her home. While away, she always looked forward to her visits there and moved back to Robert Lee in 1992 to be close to her family.

Carolynn was saved and baptized at one of the Sanco Camp Meetings by the Rev. Ernest Dewitt of San Angelo, on a ranch at Sanco, owned by the late Ira Bird. She was a Christian and it was reflected in her everyday life by the way she served and helped people.

She was a very gifted person and lived life to the fullest. Carolynn was a friend to everyone and was a servant to all people. She was employed by Mountain Creek Lodge, booking in hundreds of travelers from all over the country and adding them to her list of friends. Carolynn also worked for her brother, Kenneth Prine, who owned Kenneth's Construction, as a roofer, painter, and helper.

She was a very gifted craftsman and strived for perfection in all that she did.

Carolynn had many hobbies that she enjoyed some of which included: arrowheads and artifact hunting, rattle-snake wrangling, flying (logging many hours of flying time), sewing, and most of all just helping other people that needed help. She also loved animals, pets, and birds.

When Carolynn was hunting rattlesnakes, she kept a log book and had documented the location of over 100 dens. These log books showed the catching, selling, handling and releasing of over 4,000 Diamondback rattlesnakes. She enjoyed her experiences with the hunters but, after it became commercialized, she only caught and released instead of killing. She relocated many snakes to dens away from people protecting their rights of survival. Amazingly, although she had many close calls she was never bitten.

She is survived by her brother, Kenneth Prine; a sister, Wanda Ingram; a daughter, Shannon Maddux; a son Paul Tracey Maddux; many granddaughters, a grandson, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She is also survived by her Granddog Mini B.

Carolynn always had a beautiful smile and she just loved life and lived life to its fullest. Her loving ways and sweet personality will be missed by all those whose life she touched from every walk of life.

Carolynn left behind a legacy that will live on in our hearts! As Christians: Love thy neighbor with all your heart and forgive those that transgress against you.

The family wishes to extend special thanks to the doctor, nurses, all of the staff at Shannon Medical Center and the staff at Hospice of San Angelo.

Angelo. You are welcome to join this group where there is fun after fifty (and before) for women of all walks of life. We are usually together for about an hour or so. Some of the ladies get together and go shopping afterwards. Some go back to work. Whatever we do we have fun. Red Hat is one of the things that we really look forward to -- no dues, no rules, no business, no nothing really, but lots of good fun, food and fellowship. Each woman buys her own lunch. We hope to see you there.

Ladies under fifty can brag a little wearing something lavender and a pink hat. At or over 50 we usually wear something purple and wear a red hat. You can't miss us.

64 Study Club meets

The 64 Study Club had its first meeting of the year on September 10, 2012, at the Fellowship Hall of the Robert Lee Baptist Church.

Jackie Walker, President called the meeting to order at 6:30 pm.

Patsy Cason introduced Alan Prest from Odyssey Hospice who gave a very informative program on Enriching Lives as a Hospice

Volunteer and was assisted by Jennifer Davis.

The club members enjoyed a variety of sandwiches, chips, brownies, fruit cup, and tea furnished by Hostesses: Nita Duncan, Caryle Benton, Beth Prather, Olivia King and Jackie Walker.

Mary Bessent was re-installed as a member. Debbie Haveman was a guest and 18 members answered roll call.

Lisa Sadler, Treasurer, gave the treasurer report.

Minutes were read and approved by Sarah Green, Secretary.

The club project to raise money for the scholarship given to a Robert Lee Senior will be a beautiful print by George Boutwell that was donated by Robert Lee State Bank; the picture hangs at the Coke County Library, and will be on display at the STREET AFFAIR, October, 6 in Robert Lee. Chances and dispositions will be sold by all club members. Also lots of delicious home-made goodies will be sold at the street affair.

New Officers for the next two years are: President, Jackie Walker, 1st. Vice President, Patsy Cason, 2nd. Vice President, Johnetta Lawrence. Secretary, Sarah Green. Treasurer, Lisa Sadler. Parliamentarian, Olivia King.
