

Candidate Visits Coke County! August Pfluger (second from left), Republican candidate for the Texas 11th Congressional District for the US House of Representatives, visited Coke County earlier this month asking for community members' vote and support. He is competing against Jon Mark Hogg for the seat currently held by Mike Conaway. Conaway is retiring after representing this Congressional District for sixteen years. Following his graduation from the US Air Force Academy, Pfluger was a fighter pilot flying combat missions against ISIS. He also served at the Pentagon and in NATO Command before serving as an advisor to President Trump on the National Security Council.
