... Council Minutes

Council asked that Mr. Royall and Mrs. Thorn look for more information from T.C.E.Q. or the Plumbing Code.

The Council would like to talk more to Mr. Baker about drilling a new well for the City.

Mr. Gid Ware is asking for $1.00 per a thousand Mr. Royall has not discussed a yearly lease fee. The City will be looking at an approximate cost of $3 million for a pipeline back to town. The wells still need to be pump tested to see how much water it can produce and have these reports reviewed by a hydrologist. There is a possibility of using TWDB money for this project.

Mr. Royal let the Council know that the seal coat project would start in September. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Coke County Retired Teachers Association update posted

The Coke County Retired Teachers Association met Monday, September 19, 2014, for a noon luncheon. The meeting was held at the First Baptist Church in Bronte.

Bill Hood gave the invocation.

Following lunch and fellowship, Merle Kelso, newly-elected president, presided over the business meeting. She called on Skip Casey, interim superintendent of BISD and Terry Marrs, interim secondary principal of BISD for school news. They told of the upcoming bonfire and parade as Bronte celebrates homecoming over the weekend.

President Merle called on members to introduce themselves and tell what and where they taught school. There were 29 members present, but we are issuing a call for newly-retired school personnel to join CCRTA. Also, if you have been retired for some time, please join. Contact Janet Wommack, Box 365, Bronte, TX 76933. You can choose to pay and not attend (you will miss a good meal). We need membership numbers.

Paul Gothard, legislative chairman, urged members to be aware of our health insurance problems. Read The Voice, official news bulletin of TRTA.
