Hay Hotline - Connecting Transportation Needs

The Texas Department of Agriculture has created a hay hotline in an effort to respond to the shortage of hay and feed for livestock in Texas. Through this hotline, the department is connecting buyers and sellers and buyers with hay transportation options/operators. To assist in these efforts, please visit: <http://www.gotexan.org/HayHotlineHome.aspx>.

Red Hat Society to meet October 6

The Red Hat Society will meet at 11 am Thursday, October 6, at City Cafe in Blackwell. Dorothy will be preparing a wonderful buffet for us at a very reasonable cost. You are welcome to join this group where there is fun after fifty (and before) for women of all walks of life. If you would like to car-pool from Bronte meet at the bank parking lot by 10:30.

Red Hat has no dues, no rules, no business except to decide where to go the next month, but lots of good fun, food and fellowship. A great time to see your neighbors and make new friends.

Ladies under fifty usually wear at least one thing lavender and wear a pink hat. At or over 50 we usually wear at least one thing purple and wear a red hat. You can't miss us. Don't have a hat? Come join us anyway. For more info call Janet Wommack at 473-5388.

Ragsdale, Foust wed in ceremony

Lacy Nicole Ragsdale and Kyle Allen Foust were married Saturday, September 17, 2011, at Chapel of the Flowers in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Parents of the bride are Joe Bob and Paige Ragsdale of Eldorado. Lacy's grandparents are Peggy Abbott Jackson of San Angelo and the late D.E. Jackson and Leslie Austin McMullan as well as Bob and Beverly Ragsdale of Bronte. The bride is the niece of Jeff and Jana Brisbin.

Kyle is the only child of Mike Foust of Muncie, Indiana, and the late Michelle Foust. Kyle's paternal grandparents are Mike and Jane Grandison of Yorktown, Indiana, and the late Gene Foust; maternal grandparents are Jim and Shirley Arnold of Selma, Indiana.

Ashby Allyne Ragdale, a senior at Eldorado High School, served as her sister's Maid of Honor. Kyle's dad, Mike, stood up with Kyle as Best Man.

Escorted by her father, Lacy wore a long white strapless trumpet-style dress. Attached to her peekaboo veil was a rhinestone accented feather flower. The rhinestone accents carried throughout her wedding attire, including her "something new" rhinestone necklace and bracelet, a gift from her parents and rhinestone-studded shoes. Lacy wore Kyle's late mother's diamond earrings as "something old" and carried her late grandfather Leslie's childhood Bible as "something borrowed" from her mother who carried it when she married. "Something blue" was her garter. Red roses, symbolizing love and romance, made up the wedding party's bouquets, corsages, and boutonnières.

Ashby wore a short strapless red tulle dress.

Kyle placed Lacy's vintage wedding ring, made up of Kyle's mother's princess-cut solitaire diamond wedding band protected on both sides by Lacy's mother's original rope-style wedding bands, worn smooth underneath by the passage of time, on her finger in an emotional display of love and remembrance. In addition, Kyle will wear his father's wedding band, passed down by his father's father. These rings will be worn in memory of Kyle's mother and entrust that Kyle and Lacy will enjoy the same loving relationship these rings have seen.

After the wedding, guests traveled by limo to McMullan's Irish Pub for the reception. Guests enjoyed Irish fare and ale while the bride and groom enjoyed their around-the-town photo shoot which included the Neon Boneyard Museum. The newlyweds' final stop was the pub where they cut their Vegas-themed vanilla wedding cake filled with buttercream and pureed strawberries specially created for the couple by world-famous Freer's Bakery.

Special guests attending the wedding were the bride's great-aunt Maxine Butler of Conroe; cousins Norman Butler II and Honor Hruby of Katy; the groom's aunt, Betsey Wright of Ohio; and the couple's grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Foust

Lacy is a 2004 graduate of Eldorado High School and a 2007 graduate of Angelo State University with a B.S. in Kinesiology - Athletic Training. She is employed by Almax Nutrition and Grapevine-Colleyville ISD in Grapevine, TX.

Kyle, a 2001 graduate of Yorktown ISD in Yorktown,

Indiana, is a certified medical assistant and is Director of Drug and Alcohol Testing for Covertek in Grapevine. Kyle and Lacy are both NPC-level bodybuilding competitors. Following their wedding eve trip to the 2011 Olympia, the "superbowl" of bodybuilding, and a Las Vegas honeymoon, the Fousts will live in Justin, Texas.
