

Caring for the Community! The Robert Lee Baptist Church "Feed the Kids" summer program was a huge success! This program was headed up by Erin Oleksiuk and her team of volunteers. The "Feed the Kids" program operated strictly on donations and were able to feed, on average, 43 children, 3 times weekly. A total of 1,353 sack lunches were distributed to kids this summer.

As time got closer for school to start, it was felt there was a need to help children with their school supplies. Donations were given and Erin and her volunteers were able to buy 21 backpacks filled with supplies and provide another 25 junior high and high school students with sacks of supplies.

All of those who donated financially, gave of your time and prayed for this ministry and the children in our community are greatly appreciated.

Fall Landscaping Symposium slated

Fall Landscaping Symposium will be held at the Stephens Central Library Community Room in San Angelo on Saturday, September 21, 2013, from 8:30 am to 4:15 pm. Registration for the event, sponsored by the Concho Valley Master Gardeners, begins at 8 am on that day.

Allison Watkins, County Extension Agent, will cover EarthKind Landscaping and Wildflowers. Hardscapes will be discussed by retired County Extension Agent John Begnaud. William Welch, a professor at Texas A&M, will present Innovative Choices for West Texas Landscapes. The final speaker is landscape architect Alan King. He will be speaking about Exceptional Design in Drought Condition.

Attendees are asked to RSVP to (325) 659-6522 by Wednesday, September 18, to ensure adequate seating and materials. Stephens Central Library is located at 33 W. Beauregard in San Angelo.
