Coke County Library

The Coke County Library has received some new reading material for Texas history buffs. The Last Battle of the Civil War: Palmetto Ranch, by Jeffrey Hunt; 6,000 Miles of Fence: Life on the XII Ranch; Ace Reid and the Cowpokes Cartoons; Texas Graveyards by Terry G. Jordan and The House Will Come to Order: How the Texas Speaker Became a Power in State and National Politics, by Patrick Cox.

Also books on regional subjects are the following:

Remarkable Plants of Texas: Uncommon Accounts of Our Common Natives, by Matt Turner; Tales of the Wild Horse Desert about the vaqueros who worked the South Texas ranches by Betty Colley and Jane Monday; Life on the Texas Range: Photographs by Erwin E. Smith with a forward by Tom Lea, "If you love the land, and the herds at grass, and the men who rode horses, this is your book."

Mothers and caregivers with at home children who are between the ages of 3 and 5 years are encouraged to call the Library to set up a Story Hour time. Call 453-2495 for information.

Library hours are Tuesdays, 8-12; Wednesdays, 8-4; Thursdays, 1-5; Fridays, 8-12. Books may be returned to the Main Street Market in Bronte and to the 24/7 book drop on the porch of the Library.
