Steers outdistance Indians

By Tom Sawyer

Steer fans showed up in force and made some noise to cheer on their team to the first victory of the season as the Steers put on a great show to distance themselves from the Paint Rock Indians.

Each week, the Steers show more and more experience for this young team and this week, younger players were able to get some playing time.

Steer fans should get to the games and watch some exciting young football players put on a show. This week's game will be at home against Loraine.
